Grandparents' Day: Today (April 30th) would have been the day we celebrated Grandparents' Day at Calvin. Unfortunately, we are unable to have the grandparents come visit; but, we did not want to let this day pass without honouring them. So this week the students made a card to send to their grandparents. Perhaps you have seen it already. If you haven't seen it yet, please ask your child about it. We were hoping that you could drop it off or mail it to their grandparents so they know how special they are. Thanks so much for your help!
